The Three Musketeers* by Ken Ludwig

Directed by Ceris Thomas and Produced by Deb Chantler

September 24 to October 2, 2010

A swashbuckling romance that cleverly updates the Dumas novel filled with Humour, Heroism and Treachery! Take part in the pomp and pageantry with all the spectacular swordplay and excitement you'd expect and the introduction of Sabine, d'Artagnan's tomboy sister.

I'll Be Back Before Midnight* by Peter Colley

Directed by Dean Hall and Produced by Barbara Hunter

October 22 to 30, 2010

A terrifying thriller besets an isolated farmhouse as a young husband and wife attempt to complete her convalescence after a nervous breakdown. This nightmare of frightening events has a heart-stopping conclusion that will have you screaming and hanging on to your seats.

The Tale of the Allergist's Wife* by Charles Busch

Directed by Barry Tepperman and Produced by Mona Brennan-Coles

January 21 to 29, 2011

Meet Marjorie, in a funk brought about by the death of her adored therapist and her public breakdown in a Disney store, her husband, Ira, with his clinic for the allergy-impaired homeless, and her aged, combative mother, Frieda who occupies her time obsessing about her digestive tract. A comedy of midlife malaise on the Upper West Side.

The Duchess of Malfi* by John Webster

Adapted by Bernard Hopkins

Directed by Bernard Hopkins and Produced by Jordan Morris

February 18 to 26, 2011

A young widowed Duchess secretly marrying her new love, her corrupt brothers, a hidden pregnancy, trickery, revenge, murder and ultimate retribution in this post-modern version of a 17th century macabre tragedy.

Warning – This production may contain content or actions that may be offensive to some audiences including violence, nudity, coarse language and other potential nasty bits of business.

Picnic* by William Inge

Directed by Don Fleckser and Produced by Pat Bell

May 6 to 14, 2011

The moment he hit town... she knew it was just a matter of time. This Pulitzer Prize-winning drama explores personal discovery and our obsession with physical beauty when Hal Carter, a handsome, young drifter comes to a small town in Kansas and throws lives into disarray.

The Solid Gold Cadillac* by Howard Teichmann and George S. Kaufman

Directed by Bill Meaden and Produced by Terry Todd

June 10 to 18, 2011

This is a cheeky look at Main Street versus Wall Street. A hilarious satire from the golden age of American comedy, one of the funniest plays ever written about the foibles of big business and big businessmen as a widowed, feisty minority shareholder brings them to their knees.
